BUILDING LOAN CONTRACTS.

Investigated Advertisements Indorsed by The Tribune. Fee Charged for Investigation Arranged in Advance.

Under this classification the man or woman of character and ability wanting employment; the responsible employer wanting reliable and efficient help; the man or firm desiring capital for their business, or those wishing to dispose of anything that will stand the fullest investigation, may go before the readers of The Tribune with their statements indorsed by this paper,

VER-ENTHUSIASM rather than a deliberate attempt to deceive is probably the more frequent cause of misleading and exaggerated statements in advertising. This may shake the confidence of readers in advertisers not familiarly known to them. Conservative claims under this classification will carry your sales story to the better class of newspaper readers with more conviction than the meaningless exaggerations where you have the competition of less truthful advertisers.

Every advertisement published under "The Tribunal" is thoroughly investigated, and the statements must be in keeping with the information received.

This has given Tribune readers perfect confidence in answering advertisements which appear here. That confidence is a big asset shared by every advertiser who may use "Tribunal" advertisements to solve a personal or a "Tribunal" advertising carries prestige-it delivers the advertising "punch" which inspires results. Your advertisement will be read by readers of undoubted purchasing power and business and social standing. 'Tribunal" readers can and do respond to investment opportunities; employers have shown confidence in the advertisements of workers; high-class, competent help apply for the hard-to-fill positions-when indorsed by this paper. A trial will convince any advertiser of the unusual value to be had under this classification. Specific information will be gladly given at this office, or a representative will call on you.
